Refreshing the Air

https://www.st-c.co.jp/

Ideas to touch the heart for moments with smiles.

We all live and breathe the same air.
At S.T., we are with the air people breathe at various stages of life.
Amidst busy schedules, one may only feel it in brief moments.
However, we want those moments to be slices of relief, a time to return to normality and feel refreshed and re-motivated. A time to smile.
We believe that small, daily smiles can be the driving force for great happiness.
That's why we give our customers the utmost care.
What makes people happy?
What innovations would make people feel joy?
How can we make people love our products?
Through ideas unlike any others, we strive to touch hearts, giving people a part of our day.
Imagine the smiles you'll have today.

Background

What kind of toilet space do you want? (Top 11)*1

Women in their 30s to 40s with families are also highly conscious of the appearance of their toilet!

Latent Needs and Changes in Awareness

A growing trend toward keeping cleaning equipment and other items off the floor, even in toilets

Point

A New Proposal That Answers the Question:"What Kind of Toilet Space Do You Want?"

Flexible Placement

- Off the floor: Easily attaches to toilet tanks, etc., with the dedicated hook with an adhesive tab
- On the floor: Ultra-compact size that takes up minimal space

Dual Deodorizing Approach

- Instantly deodorizes defecation odors right after toilet use
- Continuously deodorizes and helps prevent absorbed odors on walls and floors

A toilet space that looks and smells fresh

Traditionally seen as "a place that simply needs to be kept clean," toilet spaces have recently grown in value as "places that people find comfortable." People increasingly seek a cohesive look and thoughtful placement—not only in interior decor, lighting, and fragrance, but even in the small items placed in the space.

Notably, since the late 2010s, off-the-floor storage has become a widely adopted solution in wet areas, combining smart organizing with easier cleaning.

Launched against this backdrop, this product renews the image of deodorizers—often seen as something you simply have to put out. With its design and "off-the-floor" placement options, it blends in naturally with your interior decor while still being functional. This product may be an appealing option that aligns with the trend of transforming the toilet from a mere everyday space into a more comfortable one.
